

REMARKS

Claims 1, 14, 27, 40 and 45 have been amended.

The Examiner has rejected applicants' claims 1-49 under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicants regard as the invention. Specifically, the Examiner has argued that the term "projected" in applicants' independent claims 1, 14 and 27 is indefinite. More particularly, the Examiner has argued that the figures do not show projected images on to the eye but instead have "displayed" images which are "viewed" by each eye separately. The Examiner has also argued that there is insufficient antecedent basis for the limitation "the same subject" in applicants' claims 1, 14, 27, 40 and 45 and for the limitation "the mark" in applicants' claims 38 and 39.

In order to avoid this rejection, applicants have amended applicants' claims as above set forth. The amended claims are believed to have addressed the Examiner's above-noted objections to the claims and the amended claims are now believed to particularly point out and distinctly claim applicants' invention. The amended claims thus now comply with the provisions of 35 USC § 112, second paragraph.

The Examiner has indicated that claims 2, 15 and 28 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 USC § 112, second paragraph, and to include the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Applicants have amended independent claims 1, 14 and 27 to include the features of dependent claims 2, 15 and 28, respectively, which dependent claims have been canceled. Amended claims 1, 14 and 27 thus represent dependent claims 2, 15 and 28 rewritten in independent form. Additionally, such claims are now in compliance with the provisions of 35 USC § 112, second paragraph, as above set forth. Claims 1, 14 and 27, and their respective dependent claims are thus believed to be allowable.

Additionally, claims 40 and 45 have been amended to conform to the provisions of 35 USC § 112, second paragraph, as also above set forth. These claims, and their respective dependent claims, are thus also be to be allowable.

In view of the above, all the claims remaining in the application, as amended, are now allowable. Accordingly reconsideration of the claims and passage of same to issue is respectfully requested.
